Proceedings.

GREENVILLE, N. C., OCT. 2ND, 1902.

The Twentieth Annual Session of the Woman's State Home Mission Convention was called to order by Mrs. P. G. Shepard, the President, Thursday morning, Oct. 2nd, 1902.

The praise service was conducted by Sisters Lucy Thompson and Alice Thigpen. The 13th Chapter of 1st Cor. was read. Prayer by Sister Thompson. Many expressed their thanks to God for permitting them to meet the Convention. Sang hymn No. 41, in Penticostal Hymns. The President called the house to order, and after listening to the reading of the Constitution, a committee on Revision of the Constitution was appointed.

Dr. J. A. Whitted was introduced and addressed the Convention. Rev. Whitted said: "I come to you as your friend. There seems to be some little differences existing between this body and the brethren. They think you give too little for foreign missions in comparison with the amount you give to other institutions. They think you should meet at the same time and place as they do, and they have some objections to your mode of worship." He then spoke of the Mountain Mission work, and asked the Sisters to help in this work if they possibly could. On motion $5.00 was given Bro. Whitted for Mountain Mission work. Sister Shepard urged the Sisters to do more for foreign missions. A committee on Hours of Meeting was appointed.

Benediction by Rev. Whitted.

THURSDAY—Afternoon Session.

The meeting opened at 2 o'clock. Scripture reading, Acts 27th chap. 21st and 25th verses, led by Mrs. Weston, Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Umphrey. A lively spiritual meeting followed. At 3:30 o'clock the President announced the house ready for business. Mrs. Bunn, Mrs. Riddick and Mrs. Harris were appointed a committee on Finance and Letters.

The discussion, "How can we as christian women influence our husbands and children to be more interested in mission work," was led by Mrs. Harris. Mrs. Harris said, among other things, "We should live more consecrated lives as missionaries among our children, read the Bible daily with them and teach them missionary lessons from God's word. Live up to our professions daily, and let not our good be evil spoken of."

Mrs. Riddick said, "We should be very positive, very kind, thoughtful and truthful to our husbands and children, and above all, have patience." Mrs. Mial said, "The County Unions are a power for good along this line. So many fathers who have never been interested in mission work, become interested when they attend the Union meetings." Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Weston and Mrs. Jenkins, all spoke a word on the same subject.

Rev. Taylor, the very excellent pastor of the church in which we met, was at this point introduced. Rev. Taylor expressed himself as being pleased to meet the Convention, and excused himself by saying he would say more later on. The Convention united in singing "I am so glad that Jesus loves me." The report of the Committee on Hours of Meeting was read and adopted.

Benediction by Rev. Taylor.

THURSDAY—Night Session.

7:30. For half an hour songs of praise filled the whole house, led by Rev. G. A. Mial. Prayer by Dr. R. I. Walden. Sister Bunn read from John 14th chapt. 21st verse. Sister Gibbs offered prayer and for fifteen minutes a service of praise and prayer lasted. At this point the President called the house to order, and Rev. Taylor was introduced to deliver the welcome address. Rev. Taylor in a very eloquent manner, said, among other things, "I am proud to welcome a body of christian workers in our midst. I feel sure you will do us good. I welcome you to our church, our homes, and all the comforts you may find in them, and to our town at large." Mrs. A. B. Vincent was to respond, but being absent, the President asked Mrs. Eaton to respond. Mrs. Eaton said: "We are happy to be here. Many who were with us last year have gone on to reap their reward, but we are here, and we came not to harm you, not to be a burden to you, but that we might be mutually helped by our coming together. We beg of you, dear Sisters, do not spend all of your time preparing food for our bodies but let us come together and feast our souls on God's word. We thank you again and again for the kind welcome which you have extended to us."

The President was to have delivered her address at this time, but having been sick a greater part of the summer, and unable to prepare an address, at her request, a few moments were spent in prayer of thanksgiving for her recovery, led by Mrs. Sessoms. All joined in singing "Glory to her name." Dr. R. I. Walden was introduced to the Convention. He took for his subject "Woman's Work." 1st. Woman's work in the days of man's innocence. 2nd. What has it been in man's corrupt and barbarous nature? 3rd.

What it will be in the full light of christianity. Dr. Walden handled the subject well, giving many historical truths, showing that woman had in the beginning shared all the God given privileges equal with man, and finally closed with the blessed words, "For the wolf shall also dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the young lion are feeding together, and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear feed, their young ones shall eat straw like an ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice den. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain. For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea." The woman's voice must be heard in the affairs of the church, as is now heard in the praise of God.

Rev. Moore and Rev. Avery were asked to raise the collection. In a quiet and orderly way the congregation responded by giving $5.05. Rev. Avery then asked the Sisters to remember the Baptist Sentinel, and if possible to remember it in a financial way.

Dismissed by Rev. Taylor.

FRIDAY—Morning Session.

Praise service was conducted by Sister Anna Best. The 4th chapt. of Ephesians was read. The different Sisters repeated verses most suited to their different feelings or circumstances. Sister Bunn read John 14th chapt. 14, 15 verses. A glorious praise meeting followed. Committees on Temperance, Officers, and Time and Place were appointed.

Mrs. Bunn then talked on the subject, "How may we protect our homes against the prevailing evils." Her talk was full of common sense, such as we often hear among our women who are striving to live pure, upright lives before God and man. Many sisters gave beautiful thoughts along the line of purity in our home life. Benediction by Bro. Mial.

FRIDAY—Afternoon Session.

Praise service was conducted by Sisters Sessoms and Williams. Heb. 3:1-15 was read. Half an hour was spent in praise service.

"What has the Home Mission Society done for the colored women of the State." Mrs. Sessoms said: "This Society has done a great deal for us as a race. Perhaps we have never thought of the number of women they have helped through school, and then when they are through school employ them and pay them to work among our own people. The Training School at Raleigh has proven a great blessing to us. We cannot do too much for them when we think of what they have done for us. They give our State at least five dollars for every one we send them. The "Hope" and the good influence being brought to bear in the homes by its use is a great blessing to us." A letter was read from Miss Miller, of the Training School at Raleigh. We add two or three sentences from Miss Miller's letter, as follows: "I see from your programme that you are to have a meeting in the interest of the W. B. H. M. S. on Friday afternoon, and that the work of the Training School will be presented at that time. I want to add a word to this meeting, though I am not with you. North Carolina has had more help from the W. B. H. M. S. than any other State in the Union. She should be reaching out a helping hand to others." Sister Mial added her testimony. A collection was called for by Bro. Adams, and $3.18 was raised for this work.

The report of the Committee on Temperance was read and adopted. Sister Eaton asked that this report be read by the different Societies, and discussed by the Sisters at their meetings when the minutes reached them. The report of the Committee on Time and Place was read, and after some discussion and prayerful consideration, the report was adopted.

Benediction by Bro. Mial.

FRIDAY—Night Session.

At 7:30 song service was led by Bro. Mial. Mrs. Jenkins and Miss Donnell led praise service. 121st Psalm was read. "The saving power of God" was the theme. Quite an interesting meeting followed. Mrs. Duggins spoke on the subject of "Interesting our young people in christian work, and how we may instill Baptist principles in them." Sister Duggins first called attention to several Bible texts. She said the children should be trained by the mothers, led to church and Sunday School while young, brought up for God's service. Sister Ransome said, "We must first be interested ourselves, or we could not interest others. We must not find fault of our young people until we have done our duty towards them. We should love them, protect and encourage them in every possible way. We should bring our children up in the way we want them to go." All joined in singing "Saviour more than life to me."

The work and needs of the Orphan Asylum was presented in a very feeling manner by Miss Maggie Hamlin. Miss Hamlin said: "It gives me peculiar pleasure to stand before the people of Greenville and tell you about the Orphan Asylum. Many of you have seen me before. I came to your town several years ago with a company of the children and I remember how kind you were to us then." She spoke of the paper, The Orphans' Advocate, and of what the home had been to her as an individual. Sister King said, "I have long been interested in the Orphan Asylum. I have visited the institution and was so much affected by its spiritual influence, and the good in every way it has done for the children." Rev. Taylor lifted a collection of $6.00 for the Asylum.

Benediction by Mr. Pettiford.

Saturday—Morning Session.

Praise meeting was opened by Sister Crocker. She read the 5th chapt. Gal. Many took part in the meeting and the Holy Spirit seemed to come in an abundant shower. Rev. Pullen, of Newberne, was introduced. He gave a very soul stirring talk and assured the Sisters he would give them his help and co-operation in every way possible. He said, "Sisters be sure to find your sphere of work, and then do the work you find to do." The Sisters were then given two minutes each to speak of their home work. Here we heard from many Societies and their manner of work and worship, and much information was gained about the correct use of missionary money. A letter was read from Sister Freeman. The county missionaries who were present reported work done, which was very encouraging. Rev. Pettiford was introduced and spoke of the paper "Hope," and some books he was selling.

Dismission by Rev. Pettiford.

SATURDAY—Afternoon Session.

Praise meeting was led by Sisters Hannah Williams, G. A. Harris and Cornelia Lewter. The 14th chapt. of St. John was read. All seemed to enjoy the meeting. "The effects of daily Bible reading in the home" was discussed by Mrs. Rebecca Saunders. Sister Saunders said: "By reading the Bible in our homes we teach our children to obey from God's word. It gives us all new zeal and fresh courage for our daily work. It helps us to protect our children from evil influences. By reading our Bibles we impress truthful principles in their little minds. The Hope has been a great help to me. I have learned to save more of my earnings by searching the Scriptures."

The report of the Committee on Revision of the Constitution was read and adopted. A letter was read from Sister Moore. All listened gladly to it. The Treasurer made her report, which was adopted. Dismission by Bro. Pettiford.

SATURDAY—Night Session

Praise meeting was conducted by Mrs. Ellen J. Harris. The Spirit came down and dwelt wonderfully among us. At 8 o'clock the meeting was changed. Mrs. Sessoms, the State Missionary, made her report, which was adopted. (See report.) Mrs. Mial, General Missionary, made her report, which was adopted. The proceedings of the Executive Board meeting was read and adopted. Sister Harris, of Fountain, N. C., who knew the needs of the work in her section, spoke of an organizer, and she was authorized by the Convention to organize Societies wherever she might be and saw one would do good. Mrs. Bunn and Mrs. Eaton were appointed delegates to meet the Baptist Missionary and Educational Convention. The minutes of the previous sessions were read and adopted. Closed by singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," and prayer by Sister Shepard.

SUNDAY—Morning Session.

At 9:30 praise service was conducted by Miss Womble, She read 3rd chapt. of 1st John, and spoke from 10th and 11th verses. Mrs. Duggins spoke from 3rd verse. The promise meeting was opened at 11 o'clock, Mrs. Shepard leading. She told how she was comforted while in the hospital by the 46th Psalm. Others followed. These are some of the promises: Rom. 8:28, Acts 1:8, Rev. 3:12, Rev. 22:14, Psalms 37:4-5, 2 Cor. 6:1-2, Matt. 5:9, Heb. 5:13, Ps. 11:6, Gal. 5:1, Ps. 119:1, Matt. 5:8, John 6:11, John 3:9, Matt. 5:16, Matt. 28:20, Mark 4:29, Matt. 7:7, Matt. 5:9, John 14:12-14, Prov. 16:7, Matt. 5:10, John 1:4, Isa. 48:8. A general praise meeting followed. The President spoke of our having more and more of Jesus in our lives, and urged that the Sisters do all in their power for the furtherance of the mission work. A collection was taken for the work. Amount $12.11.

Dismissed by Rev. A. B. Vincent.

SUNDAY—Afternoon Session.

2:30. Although the rain poured, a good number met to listen to the annual sermon, Rev. Vincent preached from Zec. 4:6, "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts," and Judges 7:7, "By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you and deliver the Midianites unto thine hands." Subject, Class of people that God uses. 1st. He cannot use the proud or boasters. 2nd. He cannot use the fearful and unbelieving. 3rd. He cannot use the lazy and idle. 4th. He works through organization. Rev. Vincent made a lasting impression on those who were present and heard him. A collection was taken for the work, which amounted to $2.00. Benediction by Rev. Vincent.

SUNDAY—Night Session.

The meeting was opened by singing "Savior more than life to me." Prayer by Sister P. Ellis. Sister Rebecca Saunders read Luke 14:19-24. Sister Ellis spoke from the 18th verse. She said we make too many excuses when we are asked to do work for God. We need to give up all for him. She related how she was made to deny herself and give up the use of snuff for Christ's sake. Sister Saunders then presented the work of the Parents' Conference of North Carolina. Sister Saunders said, we are a body of Christians working to make our homes more pure, and our surroundings more wholesome. Rev. Vincent was asked to say a few words. He spoke in a very touching way of the dear women who organized the Women's Convention. He then spoke of the Tupper Memorial Fund, and took some subscriptions, &c. A collection was taken for the Convention. Amount, $11.35. A blessing was asked on the collection by Sister Eaton. Rev. T. S. Evans was asked to speak but declined in favor of Rev. Matthewson. He urged the Sisters to stand together and work as one. The President insisted that each Society send up at least $1.00 to the Treasurer before Aug. 1st, for Foreign Missions.

A resolution of thanks to the people of Greenville was unanimously adopted. A general praise and testimony meeting followed, closing by singing "God be with you 'till we meet again."

Dismissal by Rev. T. S. Evans.

P. G. SHEPARD, PRESIDENT.

S. A. EATON, REC. SEC'Y.

Mrs. Sessom's Report.

STATE MISSIONARY

I began work October 1902, and worked in the interest of State work until Christmas. I spent much of the time trying to get the people interested in our mission work, and to get good literature in the homes. We believe when our people see their greatest need they can be more easily reached. We encourage daily Bible reading in the homes, that when done prayerfully will certainly turn on the necessary light. In July I began work again and continued through September.

Reports.

Report of the Committee on Time and Place.

We, your Committee on Time and Place, recommend that we meet on the first Thursday in October 1903, with the Ebenezer Baptist Church, Charlotte, N. C.

Respectfully,

VIRGINIA KING,
A. L. RANSOME,
MRS. B. WHITNEY,
M. J. SMITH.

Report of Committee on Temperance.

WHEREAS, The liquor traffic and habit is the most destructive evil of the age, and its indulgence tends not only to paralyze the life of the church and the purity of the homes, (Isa. 25:7; Gal. 5:21.)

Therefore, be it Resolved, That we, the members of this Convention and all our local Societies, will abstain from all intoxicating liquors, tobacco and snuff. Furthermore, we condemn the use of fermented wine in our churches, and will do all in our power to have the unfermented wine used in its stead.

Resolved, We will practice in our homes economy and simplicity in food and dress, and train our youth to better feed the soul and cultivate the mind in habits of industry and true service to God and our fellowman.

Resolved further, That we will prayerfully strive to be led by the Spirit of God in all things, for as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. (Rom. 8:14.)

Respectfully,

MISS M. DONNELL, MRS. LUCY EATON,
MRS. DAISY WOMBLE, MRS. ADDIE HUMPHREY,
MRS. MAMIE SILLS, MRS. SUSAN F. WILLIAMS,

Report of Obituary Committee.

WHEREAS, Our Heavenly Father has seen fit in His allwise power to remove from earth to heaven many of our dear Sisters, among whom we name the following: Sisters Mamie Durham, Rosa Merriman, Minnie Anderson, Sue Hariston, Belle Martin, Adeline McKoy, Olive Mitchell, Emma Hyatt, and Mrs. Gibson, Temple Roberts, and one of our beloved Missionaries, Miss Clara J. Eaton, and many others whose names we have not, be it

Resolved, That we, the Home Mission sisters of North Carolina, humbly submit to His will, knowing that God doeth all things well, and that they rest from their labor; and be it also

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions appear in the minutes.

Respectfully submitted,

MISS M. L. HAMLIN,
 " MINNIE DONNELL,
 " DAISY WOMBLE,
 MRS. MARY SILLS,
 " LUCINDA WESTON,

WHEREAS, the people of Greenville have thrown open their homes and made us doubly welcome; be it

Resolved, That we extend them our hearty thanks in due appreciation for their hospitality during our sojourn in their midst.

M. L. HAMLIN.

Report of Committee on Revision of Constitution.

We, your Committee, recommend that the following changes be made in the Constitution:

Article III, Sec. 3, be changed so as to read, "Any Association or Union composed of local societies may be represented in this Convention by the payment of one dollar per Society. Societies may send one delegate for every ten members. Single Societies may be represented by the payment of one dollar or more."

Article IV, in Constitution for Local Societies, the words "initiation fee," shall be left out, and let it read, "by paying ten cents admission fee."

Respectfully,

MRS. S. A. MIAL,
 " M. S. SESSOMS,
 " SARAH V. RIDDICK,
 " M. J. SMITH,
 " ROBERTA BUNN.

Report of Mrs. S. A. Mial,

STATE MISSIONARY.

Mrs. President, and dear Sisters of the Couvention:

I began work October 1901, and have labored twelve months, in different parts of the State, mostly filling calls. I found in going otherwise almost always resulted in making expenses. I find the work in good condition, wherever the Pastors are in sympathy with the work. Where there is a good wide-awake Mission Society, the sick of that community is better cared for and the churches are more spiritual, and generally raise more money. I find there is a growing sympathy for the Missionary Training School at Shaw, by our co-operation with the Womens' Baptist Home Mission Society with headquarters at Chicago. I also recommend the "Baptist Sentinel," and the paper "Hope." Where they are read I find the Sisters more spiritual. The Union meetings are enjoyed by the Brethren as well as the Sisters. The Spirit falls on all alike. Let us work and keep on praying. (Eph. 6:10-18.)

Lectures given, 70; letters written, 209; cards, 38; Societies visited, 48; Bible readings, 10; mothers' meetings held, 57; in attendance, 848; childrens' meetings held, 29, in attendance, 206; religious conversations, 716; religious visits, 2,325; miles traveled, 2,655; money raised, $46.67; money expended, $57.39; Unions organized, 2; Unions visited, 10.

Executive Board Meeting.

JANUARY 4TH, 1903.

The Executive Board, or Sub-Board met Jan. 4th, 1903, at the residence of Mrs. T. S. Eaton. The meeting was called to order by the President, and prayer was offered by Sister Shepard. A letter was read from Rev. C. C. Boone, one of our Missionaries in Africa, thanking the Sisters for some money he had received from our Convention, and asking that we do more for the African Missionaries. The Board feels it necessary, just here, to urge the Sisters to send us from each Society the sum of $1.00 before Aug. 1st, for the Foreign Mission work. A card also was read from Mrs. Tupper, asking us to assist her in sending some tools to Rev. J. O. Hayes for his Industrial School. The Board decided to send Mrs. Tupper the amount of $5.00 to help pay the freight.

The work of the Missionaries was discussed and it was decided to relieve Mrs. Mial from field work the three months, viz: January, February and March, on account of extreme cold weather on the field, and the fact that our Sisters would not turn out to the meetings well. We encourage the Union meetings and pray the Sisters to hold them in as many counties and large communities as possible. Sister Mial will begin her work again in April, working as General Missionary for the State as heretofore. Mrs. Sessoms will possibly be on the field later on. We recommend these Sisters wherever they go, and we ask that the Sisters whom they visit will give them liberal collections for the work's sake. We realize the fact that too much of our money raised for missionary work is spent in some other way, and we do ask our dear sisters to be very careful how they use their missionary money, and be sure they use it for missionary purposes only. We ask also that the Sisters strive to gain the help of pastors in their work, laying their plans before them and begging their hearty co-operation. We heartily recommend the little paper "Hope," edited by Sister Moore, of Nashville, Tenn., also her books and tracts. Also the "Tidings," from the Woman's Home Mission Society, of Chicago. These will help us much in learning to do more effectual work in our homes, and among our Sisters.

Respectfully,

P. G. SHEPARD,
A. L. RANSOME,
S. A. EATON,
Acting for the Board.

Constitution For Local Societies.

---

ART. III. Its officers shall be the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, to be elected annually.

MEMBERSHIP.

ART. IV. Any one of good moral character belonging to the Baptist Church, and in good standing, may become a member of this Society by paying ten cents admission fee and not less than five cents per month for home and local mission work.

MEETINGS.

ART. V. The regular meetings of this Society shall be held once a month; other meetings may be held at the call of the President.

DUTY OF THE TREASURER.

ART. VI. The Treasurer shall send all money designated to Foreign and Chicago Missions and for the Orphan Asylum to the Treasurer of the State Convention, Mrs. A. L. Ransome, Oxford N. C. The Treasurer shall hold all money for home work, subject to the Secretary.

ART. VII. The Secretary shall keep a record and send a report of work done and money raised during the year to the Women's Home Mission State Convention of North Carolina.

Constitution.

ARTICLE I.

This Convention shall be known as the Women's Baptist Home Mission Convention of North Carolina.

ARTICLE II.

The object shall be to establish and improve Baptist Home Mission Societies in all the Baptist churches and destitute sections of the State, to assist in supporting the Grant Orphan Asylum at Oxford, to co-operate with the Chicago Women's Baptist Home Mission Society; to send the Gospel to Africa and to awaken a general interest in the study of the Bible and other good books at home, and to establish fireside schools in every home and to make special efforts to get the whole household to attend both Sunday School and preaching service.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. The Convention shall be composed of Baptist Fireside Schools, Home Mission Societies of North Carolina and members of good standing in regular Baptist churches.

SEC. 2. Any person may become an annual member by the payment of one dollar.

SEC. 3. Any Association or Union composed of local Societies may be represented in this Convention by the payment of one dollar per Society. Societies may send one delegate for every ten members. Any single Society may be represented by the payment of one dollar or more.

SEC. 4. Any money paid into either the general or local Society cannot be given back to the one who gave it.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1. The officers of the Convention shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, Recording and Corresponding Secretaries, Auditor and seven (7) Managers, who shall constitute a Board of Managers.

SEC. 2. The President shall preside at all the meetings of the Convention, and sign all orders upon the Treasurer. One of the Vice-Presidents shall perform the same duties in the absence of the President.

SEC. 3. The Recording Secretary shall keep a faithful record of the proceedings of the Convention; she shall prepare the Minutes for the press; her stationery and postage must be furnished by the Board of Managers.

SEC. 4. The Treasurer shall hold all moneys and valuable notes belonging to the Convention, and shall pay all orders for money signed by the President and Recording Secretary; her books shall be open for inspection by any member of the Board of Managers.

She shall keep an account of donations, and shall give such bond as the Board of Managers may determine. She shall present quarterly reports to the Board and annual reports to the Convention.

SEC. 5. The Corresponding Secretary shall correspond with the Secretary of each Society pertaining to their work, and shall report the same to the Convention.

SEC. 6. The Auditor shall, before each annual meeting of the Convention, examine carefully the receipts, disbursements, papers and books of the Treasurer, and her certificates to the facts in the case shall be attached to the Treasurer's report.

ARTICLE V.

SECTION 1. The Board of Managers shall have full power to carry out the objects of the Convention and take a sufficient bond of the Treasurer. They shall employ missionaries, appoint their field of labor and fix their salaries. They shall prepare a programme and appoint a speaker for the annual sermon on the objects of the Convention.

SEC. 2. The officers of the Convention shall be the officers of the Board of Managers.

SEC. 3. Three (3) members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 4. The Board shall make annual report to the Convention, giving a full account of its transactions during the year.

SEC. 5. The actual traveling expenses of the Board to and from any special meeting shall be taken out of the general fund.

ARTICLE VI.

All officers, managers and missionaries of the Convention must be members of good standing in regular Baptist churches.

ARTICLE VII.

The funds of this Convention shall be used for general missionary work.

ARTICLE VIII.

This Constitution may be altered or amended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any annual meeting.

Baptist Missionary Training School.

SHAW UNIVERSITY, Raleigh, N. C.

The missionary Training Department of the University is established for the purpose of giving special instructions and training to consecrated colored women who are called of God to be missionary teachers, family missionaries or Church and Sunday School workers here or in foreign fields.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

To gain admission to the Missionary Training Course clear and unmistakable evidence must be given of a blameless and stable character, aptitude in Christian work, and real consecration to Missionary service. In addition to these qualifications, the applicant must have completed a course of academic studies equivalent to the normal course of the University. Special cases may occur where an exception may be made in regard to this latter requirement. The training course is entirely open to any one of the three classes of the three classes of students who possess the qualifications stated under the head, "Requirements for Admission." These three classes are as follows:

(a) Consecrated women who desire to prepare themselves to engage exclusively in missionary work among the colored people of the Southern States.

(b) Young women into whose hearts God has put a firm determination to engage in missionary work in Africa or some other foreign land.

(c) Christian women who desire to secure a thorough missionary education that they may be fitted for effective Christian work in churches of which they are members. The entire expense to students in this school will be $6 per month. This includes board, tuition, room rent, fuel, lights, etc. For catalogue and further information address

EMMA L. MILLER, Preceptress
728 S. Blount St., Raleigh, N. C.
